

day where all Americans can join together in the honor of those who answered our nation's call. We are strong, we are united and we will remain so for those who have unselfishly fought for this country."

As the ceremony came to a close, war veteran Vinny Rubio presented a poem to the Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW Post 3.

"This day is for all of the boys that went to war, that we will never forget and will always hold in our hearts," Rubio said as he handed the poem to the ladies.

After the speeches were complete, 150 members of the senior center stood together to listen to the sounds of the famous military musical piece "Taps" before retreating into the center for a luncheon catered by the Jackson Township Food Services.

"Memorial Day is such an important day for our community and I am happy that we had beautiful weather and a great turn out," Sheri Silversmith, the Senior Center's program administrator, said as she welcomed guests into the center. "The guest speaker Dorothy Burnes, the town council and the Jackson Memorial band did an outstanding job. Overall, this was a wonderful day at the center."
